

Indoor scavenger hunt

Keep things simple by putting together a list of items inside the house for your child to find.

For younger children give support with searching, follow their lead and give subtle prompts to look in the area where the object is hidden.

For older children use key words such as "Cold" when your child is far away from the object and the word 'Hot' if your child is close to the hidden object.