

Marvellous Socks

Toddlers love socks – especially when they can empty out sock drawers.

1. Sock shot (Turn taking and Physical Development)

To play this game, roll several socks into balls and encourage take turns to throw the sock into the basket or bowl.

3. Sock puppets (Imagination)

When your child is ready for a change, turn the socks in to puppet, by placing them on to your hands.

2. Match the socks (Mathematics)

Place a mixture of socks onto the floor.
Encourage your child to sort through the socks to find matching pairs.
